STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

Are you on our GIFT AID list yet?

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (whether Sunday envelopes or through standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1 at no extra cost to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon.

The Deep End – Turn the other cheek

Today we hear and read one of the most famous passages in the Gospels: love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you. It is a radical text and not so easy. How can we expected to love those who have hurt us or done harm to us? Anthony the Mello, and Indian Jesuit who wrote many books on spirituality, spoke often about concept of 'loving enemies'. When someone hurts us, when someone triggers emotional pain in us, the realisation that we are 'standing before our benefactor'. The situation is a reminder that we are still to grow and we are hurt because someone has not met our expectations. It is these expectations that we must let go of. We can learn from the other who was wronged us: how has this affected me? What do I need to let go of?

The teachings in this passage are radical and go against what we hear around us in our world like calls for retribution and revenge. However Jesus has high expectations of his followers, to go against the grain. Jesus is not encouraging passiveness. He is inviting people to a "third way": to make non-violent stand when face with persecution. By 'offering the other cheek' we allow for the potential of conversion of the others to realisation of they have done. The easy option is to retaliate, to not see our brother or sister standing before us. We can offer them an opportunity to see our own sacred humanity. 'Loving our enemies' is a call to constantly move towards restoring relationships, offering mercy and peace.

MUSINGS

To know what matters and what does not is a lesson that accompanies us all through life. Today's Word of God condenses our choices to basic fundamentals. Be holy (First Reading). Show compassion and thanks. Our desire to be holy, compassionate, grateful and to love perfectly is intensely 'there' and, with equal intensity, 'not there'. We hold ourselves in condition of surrender. We desire all that God's Word offers us by invitation, yet we choose by our passivity not to initiate, nor to cooperate. St Paul opens today's reading with a direct question: 'Didn't you realise that you were God's temple and that the Spirit of God was living among you? From our own sluggish passivity arises creativity, a mysterious liberation from all the everyday ordinariness of demands and deadlines. There is nothing to say in answer to the question by St Paul, nothing even to experience in any words that sound impressive, only to accept and realise in the words of today's Psalm, that 'we are crowned with love and compassion' and 'life will be redeemed from the grave.'
