STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

Are you on our GIFT AID list yet?

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (whether Sunday envelopes or through standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1 at no extra cost to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon.

THIRSTY FOR LIFE-GIVING WATERS

Especially during the Lenten, Holy Week, and Easter seasons, the prayer texts of the Eastern Church revel in paradoxical images of Christ: the eternal life who is put to death, the host of the supper who is also its meal, the thirsty crucified one with the living water streaming from his side. These images flow from the evangelists' portrayals of Jesus and from his very ministry, during which he often upset or reversed people's expectations about hi or the ways of God. This 'reversal' is at play in today's Gospel, as Jesus speaks to an enemy foreigner who is also a woman beneath his status. In addition he, the thirsting one, shows the woman to be the one truly thirsting. He- whose parched lips will say "I thirst" before he dies – is the source of life and life-giving water. Lent calls upon us to dwell on how each of us is thirsting for Christ, and it leads us, ultimately, back to the life-giving waters of our baptism into his Body.

CARDINAL APPEAL - LENTEN ALMS

This weekend special leaflet envelopes are being distributed to support our Lenten Almsgiving, benefitting the Cardinal's Appeal. Please make sure to take one and read about this important Appeal which helps fund evangelisation programmes, marriage and family life promotional efforts, and our presence in charitable works and service in society, especially among those on the margins. Please use the Cardinal Appeal leaflet/envelopes to make your Lenten gift and place it in the Lenten collection basket. Please make the Cardinal Appeal's part of your Lenten Almsgiving and sacrifice for the benefit of others and the Church's dynamic efforts to increase outreach in the three focal areas of ministry. Thank you for your generosity.

MUSINGS @intercom

'A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink"...'

Who are your friends? What makes you say that they are your friends? You tell him things about yourself that you would not tell a stranger. You know that you will not tell others the secrets you share with them, that they will not hold against you what you tell them or hold it over your head as a threat. At deepest level, you trust that they will remain your friends even when they know some of the less savoury aspects of your past life and character. You also trust that they will stick with you through thick and thin, through good times and tough times. And at least some of this characteristics will also be true of the relationship God wants with you. What is the most important characteristic I look for in a friend? Can I also find this characteristic in my friendship with God?
