PLANNED GIVING (OFFERING)

It is deciding how much of your income to regularly give to the work of your Parish. This will help us budget for the years ahead.

STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES 2012-2013 Gift Aid? It's worth it!

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (envelopes or standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1. at no extra expense to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon

Twenty Sixth Sunday of the Year Sunday, 30th September 2012

Not one for us

Fr Timothy Radcliffe OP spoke recently (at the International Eucharistic Congress in Dublin) of the importance of pop music for young people.

'For young people today, popular music is of vast importance in articulating their sense of hope and joy and also sometimes their sorrow and distress.

'Surely, if we are to attend to them with compassion, then we must value that music, open our ears to it, and catch its nuances ... we must give thanks to the composers and singers who offer our young water in the desert. Surely we must be open to the creativity of popular music and accept its gifts.'

How refreshing to think that goodness and inspiration can come from the most unexpected of sources.

The disciples receive a lesson in openness today. 'Not one of us' is how they refer to the man from outside the group who is claiming to work 'in Jesus' name'. But Jesus responds with a different way of looking at things; 'Whoever is not against us is for us,' he advises. Don't knock anyone's faith.

How receptive are we to the many voices we hear and to the people we come across from day to day? Are we tuned in so we can hear and appreciate goodness and wisdom in their many different guises? Fr Radcliffe talks of being 'open to creativity'. We must let the Spirit move as it will, and keep our eyes and ears peeled.

CAFOD Harvest fast day appeal: 5th October 2012

It's shocking to think that nearly a billion people will go to bed hungry tonight. For the first few years of his life, 9-year-old Gift from Zambia often had nothing to eat but pumpkin leaves, day after days. But then CAFOD gave Gift's family the tools, seeds and training they needed to set up a vegetable garden –and today they are flourishing. To help many more families like Gift's, please give what you can at Fast Day. There will be a second collection next week. Thanks for your generosity.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK

Q. Is it true that systems such as the Enneagram, Reflexology and Aromatherapy are evil because they do not originate from a Christian source and involve the worship of a false god?

A. If there is only one God then how there be another god to receive worship? The Church has been a master at adapting what is good and God-given in other traditions to Christian celebrations. The mid-winter celebration of the Unconquered Sun was adapted for the celebration of the coming of Jesus, light of the world. The birth of John the Baptist, whose role was to decrease as Jesus increased, is celebrated as the summer sun starts to wane. Regarding the three systems you mention, I have availed of all three with great benefit. The goodness of God is not confined to Christianity. 'Anyone who is not against us is for us' @Intercom

This series is the first of four dedicated to the Year of Faith and focusses on Part I of the Catechism of the Catholic Church - 'What is Faith and how do we believe?'

The series will be introduced on October 30th with a talk given by Archbishop Vincent Nichols and the following three talks in this series will look at faith in relation to psychology, cultural anthropology and philosophy.
