PLANNED GIVING (OFFERING)

It is deciding how much of your income to regularly give to the work of your Parish. This will help us budget for the years ahead.

STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES 2013

Gift Aid? It's worth it!

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (envelopes or standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1. at no extra expense to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon

The Deep End. 'No time like the present'

It sounds harsh – no stability or security, no time to bury your loved ones, no time to say goodbye to your family. Surely Jesus could have offered a bit of leeway to those who were willing to follow him?

Three people offer themselves as disciples, and in each case Jesus lets them know what a radical decision it is to follow him. They must cast aside their worldly worries and concerns and be single-minded in their discipleship. Following Jesus requires great sacrifice, and there are no excuses!

Take a look back over the Gospel readings from the last few Sundays. We have heard a lot about discipleship and what it involves. It is not easy. Last week Jesus spoke of discipleship as the way of the cross; this week he warns that we must leave our old lives behind and not look back. What does this mean for us – are we to literally hit the road and abandon our lives and families? I think Jesus is trying to convey the enormity of the decision we make in following him. It may not lead to a comfortable life. We must try to live by God's standards rather than our own or those of the world.

'The disciple simply burns his boat and goes ahead. He is called out... The old life is left behind, and completely surrendered. The disciple is dragged out of his relative security... out of the realm of the finite... into the realm of infinite possibilities' – Dietrich Bonhoeffer.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK @intercom

Q. I notice that the Tridentine Latin Mass is called the Extraordinary Rite. Does this in some way mean that it is superior to Mass in the vernacular?

A. Here is a case of Latin word being badly translated. In English when we say something is extra we usually mean something being added on. But in Latin, extra means outside, the opposite of intra, inside. The Tridentine Latin Mass in extraordinary in the sense of being outside the ordinary or usual system.

THE SYRIAN CONFLICT Update from CAFOD

How donations to CAFOD'S Syria appeal are now making a difference.

CAFOD would like to thank the people of the Parish for responding so generously to CAFOD'S Syria appeal during Lent. They received £1,483,139 from across the Catholic community of England and Wales.

As we all know from media coverage, the humanitarian situation in Syria is catastrophic and continues to deteriorate. The UN estimates that 6.8 million people in Syria are in urgent need of aid, and more than 5 million people have been forced out of their homes. Because of the fighting, it is difficult to deliver humanitarian aid in many parts of Syria.

Meanwhile, a further 1.6 million people have fled into neighbouring countries and the numbers are increasing rapidly. The people from Lebanon, Jordan and Turkey have shown great compassion in welcoming Syrians but the sheer number is putting an enormous strain on already overstretched resources.

Because of security issues on the ground CAFOD cannot communicate details of the specific programmes that they are supporting. But what they can say is that they are working with trusted Church partners in Syria who are providing food parcels, medical aid and relief supplies, and helping people to find safe places to stay. CAFOD is also working in Lebanon, Turkey and Jordan to help the refugees.

Your prayers are needed:

Please continue to pray for the people of Syria and for CAFOD's local partners who are working to alleviate their suffering.

"Let us pray for the people of Syria. May they find in us, their brothers and sisters, the compassionate hand of Christ and may they be given the support they need to look to the future with hope and renewed faith. Lord, hear us!"
