JUST MOVED in to the PARISH?

Welcome. Please register by completing a registration form from the office.

PLANNED GIVING (OFFERING)

It is deciding how much of your income to regularly give to the work of your Parish. This will help us budget for the years ahead.

STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES 2013

Gift Aid? It's worth it!

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (envelopes or standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1. at no extra expense to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon

The Deep End. 'Jesus send out the seventy-two'

If you asked Pope Francis what was the most important day in his life: his pontifical inauguration or his Baptism, what do you think he would say? Well, the correct answer would be his Baptism. As baptised Christians we are all anointed and sent out into the world. In today's Gospel Jesus sends out the seventy-two 'ahead of him' to all the surrounding towns and villages. In all our different roles in society we too are sent out 'ahead of him' as teachers, parents, ministers of various kinds, politicians, educators, social workers, students, nurses, whatever category we want to put ourselves into. The seventy-two in this passage are told to take nothing with them, no airs or graces, no judgements, no prejudices, just to go as they are and to meet the people where they are at.

We are all responsible for our Church, not just a select few. We all have different roles to play, we all have responsibilities. Instead of wondering what is going to happen in the future and why the 'labourers are so few', remember that Jesus sent out the seventy-two ahead of him and expects us all to play our role as leaders, as workers, as ministers, as people of God working together so that the 'Kingdom of God is very near'.

'Do not be a "part-time" Christian, at certain moments, in certain circumstances, in certain choices. Be a Christian at all times!' (Pope Francis)

DAY WITH MARY

Saturday, 13th July @ Our Lady & St. Peter, Wimbledon Common

QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK @intercom

Q. I want to go to confession after many years but I'm not sure how to go about it. Any advice?

A. Simply come to a priest, tell him your situation and ask him to help you. That's his job, to help you in your relationship with God. He should first pray for your guidance and peace. Then he will gently lead you through the usual areas of our relationship with God in faith, prayer and religious worship. Then look at your relationships with people in honesty, justice, charity, family life, sexual behaviour, anger, speech. Then look at your personal self-control in thoughts and behaviour, your character faults and the things you fail to do. The most important part of the sacrament is to rejoice in the marvellous forgiveness of God.

THE SYRIAN CONFLICT Update from CAFOD

How donations to CAFOD'S Syria appeal are now making a difference.

CAFOD would like to thank the people of the Parish for responding so generously to CAFOD'S Syria appeal during Lent. They received £1,483,139 from across the Catholic community of England and Wales.

As we all know from media coverage, the humanitarian situation in Syria is catastrophic and continues to deteriorate. The UN estimates that 6.8 million people in Syria are in urgent need of aid, and more than 5 million people have been forced out of their homes. Because of the fighting, it is difficult to deliver humanitarian aid in many parts of Syria.

Meanwhile, a further 1.6 million people have fled into neighbouring countries and the numbers are increasing rapidly. The people from Lebanon, Jordan and Turkey have shown great compassion in welcoming Syrians but the sheer number is putting an enormous strain on already overstretched resources.

Because of security issues on the ground CAFOD cannot communicate details of the specific programmes that they are supporting. But what they can say is that they are working with trusted Church partners in Syria who are providing food parcels, medical aid and relief supplies, and helping people to find safe places to stay. CAFOD is also working in Lebanon, Turkey and Jordan to help the refugees.

Your prayers are needed:

Please continue to pray for the people of Syria and for CAFOD'S local partners who are working to alleviate their suffering.

"Let us pray for the people of Syria. May they find in us, their brothers and sisters, the compassionate hand of Christ and may they be given the support they need to look to the future with hope and renewed faith. Lord, hear us!"
