Second Sunday of Easter - 23rd April 2017 Or Sunday of Divine Mercy

The Deep End - Shalom @Intercom

The disciples in today's Gospel must have been so excited to tell Thomas their news: 'We have seen the Lord'. Sometimes when we try to share something of our faith experience with others, we can meet similar responses- doubting, cynicism- we can even be made fun of. The Risen Jesus bears wounds of his suffering and even invites Thomas to touch them, to get in touch with the reality of his suffering. We might recall times when we have been overwhelmed by pain but looking back on those times of 'wounded-ness'- and hear Jesus's 'Peace be with you', the promise that he is with you. The word 'Peace' (Shalom) is more than a wish for a good evening or peaceful day. It expresses the desire that the person receiving the blessing might be whole in body, mind and spirit. The Risen Jesus brings a peace that is life-giving. The disciples were locked away, afraid, closed off from the world. When Jesus is present with them, their hearts are opened again, they rejoice. The Risen Jesus in today's Gospel moves the disciple from total fear and despair to 'rejoicing'. The same Risen Jesus is active in all our lives and in the world around us. 'Life will always prevail, through all the layers of death in which we try to contain it.' Margaret Silf

DIVINE MERCY

In the Great Jubilee Year 2000, St. John Paul II declared that throughout the Catholic Church, the Sunday after Easter will be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

St. John Paul II referred to the many instructions that Jesus gave to St. Faustina in appearances to her regarding His request for a Feast of Mercy on the Sunday after Easter. St. Faustina's Diary records 14 occasions when Jesus requested that a Feast of Divine Mercy (Divine Mercy Sunday) be observed.

Jesus also instructed her to have the image of Him painted just as He appeared to her and to have it blessed and venerated on the First Sunday after Easter throughout the world. Jesus promised that "on that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open" and that He would open His heart and pour out His mercy like a 'whole ocean of graces' to those who go to Confessions and receive Holy Communion. (From Cath. Herald Madison)

Jesus reveals himself with his wounds: whole body was clean, beautiful and full of light but the wounds were and are still there, and when the Lord comes at the end of the world, we will see his wounds. Before he could believe, Thomas wanted to place his fingers in the wounds. He was stubborn. But that was what the Lord wanted- a stubborn person to make us understand something greater. Pope Francis
