Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday 23rd July 2017

The Deep End – Changing the world @intercom

In 2009, the first Darkness Into Light event in aid of Pieta House took place in Dublin's Phoenix Park. Around 400 hundred people walked the 5 km course that year to raise funds for the suicide prevention charity. Fast forward to May this year, and more the 130,000 took part in 150 Darkness Into Light events across Ireland and worldwide. Many of us will know someone who took part, or we may have got involved ourselves this year. As the crucial message of hope and solidarity filters out from these events, who knows how many lives have saved or transformed over the years?

Darkness Into Light is a great example of a movement which has grown from a small seed, of an idea into a major force for good. The parable of the mustard seed, which we hear today, shows us that fantastic things can emerge from the most modest of beginnings, 'the smallest of the seeds'. The disciples who first heard Jesus speak were ordinary people- no the religious leaders of the time or those in position of power or influence. But they were the seeds from which the Church would grow down through the ages. Each act of kindness or forgiveness, each time we spread the Good News of Jesus in our own way, we are hastening the spread of God's kingdom. These seeds grow and multiply, and bear abundant fruit even if we cannot always see the results. We can't change the world in one go-but we can change our world.

Prayer is a true medicine – Pope Francis Reflections

"Prayer is the true medicine for our suffering. In prayer, we too can feel God's presence. The tenderness of his gaze comforts us; the power of his word supports us and gives us hope." - Pope Francis

Imagine for a moment you are looking at all of the things you do in your spiritual life as the contents of a medicine cabinet. What kinds of "medicine" do you see there to give relief for dis-ease in the soul? Which forms of prayer take up the most space in the cabinet? Are there any spiritual practices that are "out of date" in that they don't seem to bring you relief or closer to God? Is there any devotion you might be "overdosing" on as a way to avoid a persistent issue or change you think may be painful? @Livingwatercatholic.org

MUSINGS: Let them both grow @ Intercom

Did you ever think that perhaps your faults have some benefits? We get discouraged when go to confession (did I say go to confession?) and discover we are saying some old things over and over again. In this Sunday's parable Jesus says that the weeds can exist side by side with the wheat and God will sort it out at the end of our lives.

Along the way it just may be that our faults have some benefit. First, they keep us humble. Second, they keep us honest so that we don't approach others with judgement. And our fault can remind us to treasure our virtues and use them to love others. There is value knowing both our capacity for evil and our capacity for good.

Do you want to go to heaven? God wants you to go to heaven. God has made his decision. God wants you to live with him forever. Have you made your decision? Have you cast your lot with Christ? Have you humbly and honestly faced your faults and taken the higher road of virtue in dealing with others? Have you been astute to the presence of the Evil One sowing dissent and bitterness in your heart? Have you been to confession recently?

May the Lord give you peace?
