THE DEEPEND: How to welcome the child

In today's gospel Jesus is presented as the courageous leader, instructing those who will follow on from him and carry on his work for future generations. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, 'Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.' Then he took a little child and said to them, 'Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.' This September we are celebrating the Season of Creation. Pope Francis challenges us to reflect: 'What kind of world do we want to leave to those who come after us, to children who are now growing up?' (Laudato Si', 160). In the context of today's gospel we might ask: how are we welcoming generations to come? Pope Francis urges us to remember that the goods of the earth are not meant to be exploited and states, 'Doomsday predictions can no longer be met with irony or disdain. We may well be leaving to coming generations debris, desolation and filth.' During this creation time let us reconnect once more with nature and restore our relationship with the environment. As parish communities we must play our part in ensuring that our world is liveable for generations to come.

'Climate change is a global problem with grave implications: environmental, social, economic, political and for the distribution of goods. It represents one of the principal challenges facing humanity in our day.' Pope Francis, Laudato Si', 25.

Adoration

Adoration continues in the church at 8.30am before every weekday Mass.
Nali: 'For me adoration is the most intimate part of my life- where I am most vulnerable. It is where I come face to face with the one I love. I accept Him seeing me as I am and allow Him to shower me with His graces. It is a moment of quietness with God, in a world of 'busyness'.

SPOTLIGHT ON THE MASS

The Entrance Procession Is the procession to the altar at the start of Mass just a means of getting to the altar? Or is it simply a way of welcoming 'Fr Smith'? The entrance procession is far more than this; it has a deep theological significance, reminding us all of the fact that the entire people of God are pilgrims – we are a pilgrim people on the road from here (the earth) to eternity (to heaven). The entrance procession symbolises our journey from the world outside the doors at the back of the church, to our heavenly destination, symbolized by the sanctuary at the front of the church. In that journey, Christ is not only our goal, symbolized by the altar, but He also accompanies us on the way in the person of the priest. As the procession reaches the altar, the priest kisses the altar, in effect, greeting Christ. The altar stone has come to signify Christ as the cornerstone of that building which is the Church, the People of God, His body. The priest represents Jesus and acts in the person of Christ. Therefore, through his Holy Orders the priest is configured to Christ and is a sacramental sign of the presence of Jesus. In other words, Jesus Christ is walking our aisle, robed in priestly vestments, and arriving to minister to us in Word and Sacrament and we welcome him with a hymn of praise!
