STANDING ORDER

Selfless saint

Various figures down through the ages have become synonymous with selfless love- Mother Teresa of Calcutta, Oscar Romero, St Damian of Molokai, St Don Bosco, St Maximilian Kolbe... the list goes on. They were people who gave up everything to help others, often suffering greatly themselves in the process. They were those rare human being who truly live out of the familiar, yet challenging instructions to 'love your neighbour as yourself'.

I recently came across the story St Josephine Margaret Bakhita of Susan, who was kidnapped as a young woman and spend many years as slave. Asked once 'What would you do, if you were to meet your captors?', she responded: 'If I were to meet those who kidnapped me, and even those who tortured me, I would kneel and kiss their hands. For, if these things had not happened, I would not have been a Christian and a religious today'. During illness in her later years, when a visitor would ask how she was, she would reply 'As the Masters desires'. Hers words display a deep understanding of the two greatest commandments, to love God with all your heart, and to love neighbour as yourself.

The God who speaks in today's First Reading is a God 'full of pity' who hears the cry of the poor and vulnerable. Many of the saints down through the ages echoed this love in their service of others. Reading about the lives of the saints might no longer be fashionable, but there is so much we can learn. @Intercom

NOVEMBER...THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

In Catholic tradition November is a month of prayer for the dead. Praying for the dead is rooted first in the Christian belief in the everlasting life promised in Jesus' teachings and foreshadowed by his disciples' experience that God had raised him from the dead. After death even though separated from our earthly body, we yet continue a personal existence. It is as living persons that God invites us into a relationship whose life transcends death.

Communion of Saints... Holy Souls envelopes are available today. Please write the names of your deceased relatives and friends on the sheet provided and these envelopes will be collected after Mass next week. Mass will be celebrated twice a week for those names placed in a box by the altar and any spare stipends will be sent to the Missions.

We ask for your charitable prayers for those who are sick, recently deceased and those whose anniversaries are at this time.

The Gospel tell us that the greatest commandment is love. In a speech given at the World Congress of the Lay Apostolate in October 1957, Giovanni Battista Montini (later Pope Paul VI), who was beatified last Sunday explained that 'the secret of the lay apostolate is to know how to love... those nearby and those afar; love our own country and those of others; love our friends and our enemies; love Catholics, Protestants, Anglicans, the indifferent; love Muslims, pagans, atheists... love our own times, our modern civilisation, techniques, art, sport, our world... let us love it with the heart of Christ.' @Intercom
