Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Sunday 30th July 2017

The Deep End – Treasures and pearls @intercom

In the immediate aftermath of the horrific bomb attack in Manchester on 22 May this year, the hashtag #roomformanchester began to trend on social media. In the midst of the chaos and terror, locals were opening up their homes and hearts to anyone who had been affected by the incident and was in need of help. People who lived nearby offered food and cuppa, a place to charge phones, or a bed for the night. Hotels took in dozens of children and teenagers who had been separated from their parents. Taxi drivers offered free lifts, and other offered to drive those who had been stranded home to surrounding areas. People began to queue up at donor banks to give blood to help those injured in the attack. In the face of an evil and senseless act that inflicted so much pain, kindness and goodness shone through.

Difficult times often bring out the best in people. We see it in the way friends rally around a bereaved family, or communities raise money to help a sick child. There are treasures in our people and our communities that we could never put a price on. Jesus talks today about hidden treasures and fine pearls and prompt the question – what is most important to us, and what are we willing to sacrifice for it? Sometimes treasures like compassion and love are there for all to see, and other times they are hidden and buried and we have to go in search of them, and to remember to bring them to others. The kingdom of God is always close at hand and within each of us.

Personal time with God: Remember God when packing your holiday suitcase.

When we go on holiday we assume our familiar roles; make a list of things to take and we hunt round the house to find all the stuff and pack it into bags. Other familiar holiday traits include relaxing, spending more time with the children and friends, and generally enjoying a change from normal life. However, with all the winding down we tend to forget about the time we set aside to be with Jesus. So do not forget the importance of packing God into your suitcases and taking him with you on holiday (whether that be in the garden or on the beach) and not leaving him at home along with all the other daily routine that we are so eager to escape from. ### MUSINGS: Hidden Treasure @ Intercom

'A Parable leaves you with sufficient doubt about its meaning to tease the mind into active thought'.

Hidden or buried treasure sounds like an adventure story. This is intended by Jesus. Finding the kingdom of God is like an adventure in which there is a treasure that we did not expect to find, that fills us with wonder and tension and drama. Not everyone finds this treasure, which is what makes the story exiting. Jesus could have said that the man dug up the treasure and took what wanted and left the rest out in the field for others to find easily, but he doesn't. The man hides the treasure again.

We who find the treasure of the kingdom of God will come to understand (whether immediately or over time), that it is more valuable than all that we have- all that our lives consist of. The treasure of the kingdom of God does not fit nicely or easily into the lives that we have already constructed for ourselves. Treasure stories are all about disrupted lives. One cannot discover hidden treasures and remain the same or continue, in an undisrupted way, to live the life one has always lived. In a sense, the measure of the disruption of our former lives is also a measure of the meaning of the treasure we have found. Some of us, perhaps, have not yet discovered the treasure that is worth exchanging our lives for.
