The Transfiguration of the Lord Sunday 6th August 2017

The Deep End – The Mountain top

In the Scriptures, the mountains are often places where people encounter God. Jesus takes the disciples up to the mountain top to pray, to a quiet place, away from all the attention and the crowds. They have the most wonderful experience as we read in the Gospel today.

Can you recall a place where you felt deep peace or a sense of experiencing God? In nature or in the places you go for some 'time-out' for yourself: Perhaps it is special moments with family and friends; times of joy and sorrow. These 'mountain-top' experiences nourish us, can bring us insights or help us to deal with difficult period in our lives. They can bring feelings of euphoria, deep joy and blessing and often sustain us in life. No wonder the disciples wanted to build 'three dwellings' so that Moses, Elijah and Jesus would stay with them like this forever. However, we cannot remain in those experiences forever. Jesus' way involves both times for encounters with mystery but also coming down from the mountain and continuing on life's journey and mission. Can we carve out these moments of quiet in our busy days to be with the Word, to create the space to listen and make room for this encounters with the Lord? This week, imagine yourself in this story as you read 'Jesus took me with him and went up on the mountain to pray...'

'To pray the scriptures is to descend to the level of the heart and find God'. - Michael Casey OCSO

MUSINGS: Being Transfigured @ Intercom

From the event of the Transfiguration I would like to take two significant elements that can be summed up in two words: ascent and descent. We all need to go apart, to ascend the mountain in a space of silence, to find ourselves and better perceive the voice of the Lord. This we do in prayer. But we cannot stay there! Encounter with God in prayer inspires us anew to 'descend the mountain' and return to the plain where we meet many brothers and sisters weighed down by fatigue, sickness, injustice, ignorance, poverty both material and spiritual. To these brothers and sisters in difficulty, we are called to bear the fruit of the experience with God, by sharing the grace we have received.

Pope Francis

Like Jesus we need places where we hear the words 'you are my son, daughter and the beloved'. We know too that if we believe that, our lives will be challenged. Whenever we climb the mountain of the Lord, make any journey with him, we are changed. As every mountain is different, every moment with the Lord is worthwhile! Someone said, 'Every time I pray I think of...and I know I must be kinder. - Dona Neari SJ
