

OFFERTORY COLLECTIONS

Sunday 24 May 2015.

Envelopes: £499.90

Loose: £246.00

Standing Orders £691.25 (Apr/Week)

Your generosity enables us to pay the parish bills. Thank you!

JUST MOVED in to the PARISH?

Welcome Please register by completing a registration form at the parish office.

PLANNED GIVING (TITHING)

It is deciding how much of your income to regularly give to the work of your Parish. This will help us budget for the years ahead.

STANDING ORDER

It is not always possible to attend Mass in your own parish every week, like when you're on holiday. The most effective way to give is via a standing order from your bank account. All you need to do is fill in our Planned Giving Form, sign it, and return it to the office.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES 2015

Gift Aid? It's worth it!

It is important to gift aid your offering to the church (envelopes or standing order). This means that the government will top up your offering by 25p for every £1 at no extra expense to you, the giver. You have to be a UK taxpayer to qualify and you have to fill in a declaration form. For more information, please call the office or ask Fr. Gideon.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

The Deep End – Broken people

Dublin has become the latest city to acquire a 'Homeless Jesus' statue. The sculpture, created by Canadian artist Tim Schmalz, depicts Jesus as a homeless person, sleeping on a park bench. The face of the blanketed figure is obscured, but nails marks on his feet reveal his identity.

'Homeless Jesus' appears to have been presented to Dublin by an anonymous North American benefactor, who is also giving copies to 11 other European cities, including the Vatican. The chosen location in Dublin was the grounds of Christ Church Cathedral, though a competition run by the Irish Times found that readers favoured Molesworth Street at a location near where homeless man Jonathan Corrie died.

Speaking about the work, Schmalz said: 'Jesus did not say "love the wealthy". His ministry was to the suffering and the poor. The heart of Christianity is to love the broken people, and this is where you find Jesus.'

'Really, it's a visual translation of Matthew 25, where Jesus says that whenever you see the most marginalised, broken people in our society, we should think of him.'

In today's Gospel for the Feast of Corpus Christi, Jesus talks about his body that will be broken and his blood that will be poured out. It is this 'broken' Jesus that we meet in the Eucharist, and who meets us in our own broken state. It is this broken Jesus who is present in all of us, and who challenges us to love the broken people we meet.

MUSINGS

I have found memories of spending time over the years with Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity in her home city of Skopje, Republic of Macedonia. On my first visit there on 1999 I was struck by the seamlessness of what the sisters did in evening adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and the work they were occupied with earlier in the afternoon among those most in need. This is captured beautifully in an addition the order makes to the prayer known as the Divine Praises. Directly after the sisters pray 'Blessed by Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar' they add @blessed be Jesus in the poorest of the poor.
