Dear Young Person,

This course of preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation includes:

- Sessions for candidates
- A weekend retreat or day(s) of recollection
- A Mass of enrolment and a Mass of Commitment

Candidates are expected to be fully committed to this course in order to be prepared properly for the Sacrament of Confirmation. They should attend the whole course.

Decision: Please understand that a decision to start this course does not imply any commitment: this course is designed to help the candidate to reach such a decision. It does not begin with that assumption. For that reason, the candidates are not asked to write letters to the parish priest before the course begins. Once they have had a chance to find out what the course is all about, there will be a Mass of Commitment, when the candidates will indicate that he or she wants to continue with the preparation for the Sacrament. The decision to be confirmed should, as far as possible, be taken by the candidates (in consultation, of course, with the parents and with us). The Sacrament of Confirmation is to be seen, with Baptism and the Eucharist, as one of the three Sacraments by which one enters the community of the Church. The decision to be confirmed is a very important one.

Sponsors should be chosen on the basis of example, good qualities and friendship; they should be the kind of people the candidates can go to in order to discuss spiritual and moral issues in their lives. Sponsors must be practicing Catholics; they are often the candidate's Godparents. They will stand as witnesses to the candidate's faith, intention and moral character.
