Are you on our GIFT AID list yet?

Third Sunday of Advent

The Deep End @intercom

Jesus asks the crowd in today's Gospel why they ran to see John the Baptist. Sometimes when we go to hear a famous speaker or go to someone we admire we are looking for answers. Our expectations are often not grounded in reality. Jesus asks the people, what did they expect when they went to see John? Were they looking for someone nicely dressed? No, they were looking for a prophet and John was the greatest of these. Jesus's words are almost like a eulogy for John.

John announces and makes way for Jesus, marking the end of one era and the beginning of another. John announces a new time. John names the question we so often ask when a new exciting leader comes on the scene: Is this the one? Is this person we've been waiting for? And if it is, how we will know? Our expectation can often be so great because we are constantly in need of renewal. Where in your life today do you need to experience fresh hope and newness?

The Gospel ends with a paradox: John is the greatest that has ever been born; yet the people who are considered the 'lowest' or the 'least' in this world are considered even greater than John by God. A statement that no doubt would have left few people scratching their heads.

'O Come, O Come, Emmanuel, come forth from deep within me with Christmas luminous beauty. For my heart has become the sacred crib, the birthing place of God among us' – Fr. Edward Hays (d. April 2016)

MUSINGS

@intercom

John, who was in prison.

There is much waiting time in prison. Waiting for sentence, for release, waiting with patience to discover one's fate. This is where John the Baptist finds himself after confronting Herod. John has prophesied revolutionary change but couldn't see it in Jesus. Therefore the question: 'Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?' Jesus knew his cousin had depth of spirituality to sustain him and his response is simple but effective: 'Go back and report to John what you hear and see'.

We've seen it too in others who were confident. St Paul, Nelson Mandela and Viktor Frankl never lost hope. They were not self-preoccupied in waiting but focused on their mission of establishing God's kingdom, ending apartheid or not allowing evil to win the day. 'He who has a why to live for can bear with almost any how' (Nietzsche). Advent is our time for developing a spirituality that teaches patience; to wait with patience and hope despite the darkness of our time. In the depths of winter we learn to wait for the light. And the light will come just as the days begin to lengthen. We must wait.

Church Cleaning- The church gets a lot use and so needs to be cleaned regularly. Please consider joining the team; it takes about 2 hours once a month. Please contact the parish office 02076073594 or Juliana 07960541286 to volunteer.
